

PROFILE FOR KHELETISE TRADING ENTERPRISE

Registration No	2016/393371/07
Director and Founder	Maphefo Constance Selomo
Contact No	076 939 3581
Residential Address	43 Main Street Akasia Pretoria Gauteng 0182

VISSION

Kheletise Trading Enterprise (KTE) is a company which focuses on redressing the triple challenges of poverty, unemployment and inequality. It seeks to support government initiatives create an inclusive growth and sustainable development to better the lives of the people of South Africa, particularly youth, women, children and people with disabilities as we navigate the business market to expansion and grow our company. Our goal is to increase the company's profile margin through networking with investors and partners to build a self-sustainable business to make an economic impact in the lives of our people as well as ensuring growth and development of the company.

MISSION

The company wishes to participate in Broad Base Black Economic Empowerment with a view to ensure equity and the creation of job opportunities for disadvantaged families to push back the frontiers of poverty. The company undertakes to provide quality service and urgent solution to its clientele with utmost integrity and professionalism.

VALUES

To move forward our vision and mission, Kheledise embrace the following core values:

- Customer driven
- Understanding customer's present and future needs
- Ubuntu
- Patriotism
- Batho Pele
- Integrity

THE OWNER'S PROFILE

The owner of the company is a young adult unemployed woman with keen interest and passion in business. She is enthusiastic to provide and deliver qualitative service in line with customer's prescription and requirements.

THE MAIN BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

- Supply and install ICT equipment and infrastructure development
- Civil and Building Construction
- Electrical Management
- Mechanical Engineering Service
- Plumbing Service
- Water Drilling and Reticulation
- Event Management
- Printing-Stationary, Books and Promotional Items or Materials
- Gardening Service
- Transport Service
- Catering Service
- Supply of Fencing Materials and, Fencing
- Cooperate Gifts
- Sports Clothing
- Fumigation and Pest Control
- Uniform and protection clothing

EQUITY OWNERSHIP

The founder and shareholder is a South African female who wishes to actively take part in the mainstream economy and participate in the process of renewal and champion the course for a South Africa that is truly belonging to all who lives in it, united in our diversity.

JOB CREATION

For the contracts and jobs that the company get utilize local work force with the aim to fighting unemployment, poverty and deprivation trap facing our people. Where additional resources are required, the company forms partnership with other companies to deliver adequate solution on a more accurate and pragmatic manner.

CONCLUSION

Quality is something that is found on the incorporation of systems and practices. Services distraction will be flagged before problems manifest themselves. Scientific analyses guides our innovative approach to the market. We also believe that the question of development in South Africa should be three pronged process, which calls for a partnership between government, private and civil society to work together to address challenges phasing youth, women, and people with disabilities. We are hundred percent (100%) ready to work with government and private sector to improve the welfare of our people.